The Program:

FastTrac® TechVenture™ is a hands-on business development program specifically designed to assist scientists, inventors, engineers and IT developers to commercialize an innovative and scalable technology, product, or service.

The Format:

FastTrac® TechVenture™ will be presented over a six-week period beginning Tuesday, February 23, 2010. Each week different business development and management topics will be discussed:

- Entering and Capturing the Market
- Financial
- Entrepreneurship and Building Your Team
- Protecting Your Intellectual Property
- Identifying Funding and Working With Investors
- Cash Management and Operations

Professional business coaches and mentors will then work individually with each company to incorporate that topic into the company's business processes.

The Team:

FastTrac® TechVenture™ is sponsored by BIOSTART (an Edison Incubator), Hamilton County Business Center (an Edison Incubator) and TechSolve (an Edison Center.)

The topic presenters, coaches and mentors are high powered, local business professionals who have launched successful careers and businesses.

The Result:

Upon completion of the entire FastTrac® TechVenture™ program, each participant will have the tools to create a world class enterprise.
